CLUBDOM

GUESTS AT ELMAN RECITAL MUST ARRIVE ON TIME

Mrs. J. P. Hill, president of the Elman Club, has received many complimentary remarks for the excellent display of the lack of good breeding displayed by some of those who for the first time attended the Elman recital on Wednesday evening. The doors will be closed promptly at 8 o'clock and no one will be admitted during the recital of a number.

Many of the most beautiful musical recitals of the season, given under various management, have been completely spoiled for those seated near the back of the theater by the late arrival of the late comers, or those who engaged in conversation to the great discomfort of those about them who had paid to hear the artist of the evening, but were denied the pleasure because of the thoughtlessness of a few.

Mrs. Hill is determined that those who attend the Elman Club recital shall have the opportunity of hearing that great artist to the best advantage and it is her intention that there shall be no interruptions.

While Memphians are being brought to a greater appreciation of good music, they should also be brought to realize good manners as of even greater importance, as no greater insult could be offered to a musician than to carry on a noisy conversation while he is rendering a program.

CHAPTER MEMBERS ENTERTAIN VETERANS

On Saturday afternoon, following the meeting of the Confederate Historical Association, the members of the Elman Club entertained the veterans of the Civil War chapter, at D. C., of which Mrs. Ernest Walworth is president, entertained the veterans.

Two charming and talented young girls rendered a program, which delighted the veterans, who enthusiastically applauded them. These were Miss Lucille Childers, who gave several beautiful readings, and Miss Joe Clea Howe, who afforded much pleasure with her clever songs and readings.

At the close of the afternoon delicious refreshments were served.

Merrill Association.

The regular monthly meeting of the Merrill association of the Parent-Teacher association of Merrill school will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the school building.

COTTON GROWERS FORM ASSOCIATION

HYTHEVILLE, Ark., March 8. (Sp.)—Col. T. J. Shackelford, vice-president of the American Cotton Growers association, and Dr. George L. Sands, state campaign manager for the Arkansas division, were in Hytheville Friday and addressed a representative crowd of farmers and business men in the interest of the association. Col. Shackelford was the speaker of the day. He had all the facts about cotton at his finger tips, and presented them in a very forceful manner.

Dr. Sands followed Col. Shackelford and presented a preliminary organization, obtaining 15 memberships. Preliminary officers elected were: R. E. Lee Wilson, of Wilson, chairman; L. E. Howard, of Hytheville, secretary; executive committee, J. H. Smotherman, of Hytheville, J. E. Crigger, of Hytheville, J. M. Hutton, of Manila, P. H. Nelson, of Leachville, P. F. Martin, of Delta, E. Thompson, of Birdette, Lon Williams, of Osceola, Steve Ralph, of Joiner, C. L. Deaton, of Birdsong, and S. E. Simonsen, of Luxora.

From the interest displayed at their meeting, these officers will have no trouble in securing a large membership. They were given a start of 16 members, including four charter members, raising the sum of $775.

The officers and members of the farm committee of the chamber of commerce entertained Col. Shackelford, Dr. Sands and R. E. Lee Wilson, of Wilson, Ark., at luncheon at the Hotel Glencoe.
